

For more information on the DFG-funded Priority Programme Transottomanica (SPP 1981) visit our website at www.transottomanica.de or contact:

Dr. Florian Riedler
Programme coordinator
University of Leipzig florian.riedler@uni-leipzig.de

TRANSOTTOMAN CULTURES OF EXPERTISE

Johannes Gutenberg-Universität Mainz,
Arbeitsbereich Geschichte des Islams
im östlichen Mittelmeerraum

13-14 April 2023

Organization:
Barbara Henning (JGU Mainz)
Taisiya Leber (JGU Mainz)
Ani Sargsyan (Universität Hamburg)

PRIORITY PROGRAMME 1981

T TRANSOTTOMANICA
Eastern European-Ottoman-Persian
MOBILITY DYNAMICS

13 APRIL, THURSDAY

14.00 Greetings and introduction by BARBARA HENNING, ANI SARGSYAN, and TAI SIYA LEBER

14.30–15.30 Outcomes of the first workshop on expertise (2021)

Speakers: ANDREAS HELMEDACH, YUSUF KARABICAK

15.30–16.00 Coffee break

16.00–17.30 PANEL 1: MODERN EXPERTISE

Chair: BARBARA HENNING

AYLIN DE TAPIA, Cappadocia as a field for expertise: Paths of three Rum “experts” of Cappadocia in search of a historical identity

MERIC TANIK, Proving one’s worth: Ottoman agronomists’ and veterinarians’ rhetoric on the essential utility of their expert-knowledge

17.30–17.45 Coffee break

17.45–18.30 Keynote lecture by ELISE MASSICARD (CNRS, Paris)

19.00 Dinner

14 APRIL, FRIDAY

9.00–10.30 PANEL 2: EARLY MODERN EXPERTISE

Chair: TAI SIYA LEBER

TOMISLAV MATIĆ (online), Croatian experts on the Ottoman Empire in the 15th and 16th Century

POLINA IVANOVA, Manuscript as a site for expertise: MS 532 of the Matenadaran collection (Armenia)

11.00–12.30 PANEL 3: EARLY MODERN EXPERTS

Chair: ANI SARGSYAN

EDA GENÇ ATALAY, Eugenios Voulgaris and the Enlightenment in the Orthodox Church

HASAN ÇOLAK, Multilingualism as a form of transcultural expertise: A study of multilingual Ottoman Muslim intellectuals in the eighteenth century

12.30–13.30 Lunch break

13.30–14.00 Publication Strategy – leading questions and steps on the way to the special issue

14.00–14.30 Coffee break

14.30–15.30 Final discussions

JOHANNES GUTENBERG
UNIVERSITÄT MAINZ

Universität Hamburg
DER FORSCHUNG | DER LEHRE | DER BILDUNG